<Ling Shu> Cold and Hot Diseases

"When the yang is rebellious and in counterflow, the head is painful. The chest is full and is unable to draw a breath, Treat Man's Receptor (ST 9). When there is an abrupt loss of speech, the qi hardens. Treat Supporting Chimney (LI 18), and draw blood from the base of the tongue. When there is an abrupt loss of hearing, the qi becomes covered and blocked, and the ears and eyes lose their brightness. Treat Celestial Shutters (SJ 16). When there are spasms, convulsions, and dizziness, and the feet are unable to bear the body, treat Celestial Pillar (UB 10). When there is an abrupt thirst, and fever, the interior is rebellious and in counterflow causing the liver and lungs to strike at each other. Blood overflows from the nose and mouth. Treat Celestial Mansion (LU 3) and the Celestial Shutters (SJ16) along with five positions." The Spiritual Pivot, Wu, '93.
